'CHIHULY' AT THE BOTANIC GARDENS Art and Botanical Delights

OCTOBER DAY TOUR 9.45am to 4.15pm $140

Prepare for a 'once in a lifetime' October outing as we celebrate the Australian debut of Dale Chihuly's Garden Cycle exhibition, exclusively in Adelaide. Step into the world-renowned artist's visionary realm at the 'Chihuly' Exhibition in the Botanic Garden. Here, the exquisite interplay of vibrant glass art and lush greenery forms a stunning visual symphony. Each sculpture by Dale Chihuly stands as a vibrant testament to the seamless integration of art within natural spaces.

Additionally, you will have the unique opportunity to explore more of this special exhibition inside the rainforest conservatory, where you can immerse yourself in a tropical environment enriched with Chihuly's spectacular creations.

After immersing ourselves in artistic wonders, we'll retreat to the historic Bridgewater Inn. Nestled by the river, this charming spot offers a perfect setting for a relaxing lunch. Indulge in delicious cuisine in a picturesque environment that complements the morning's aesthetic feast.

CHRISTMAS Art, Heart & Holiday Cheer Celebrate with friends

DECEMBER DAY TOUR 10:00am to 4.30pm $130

Join us for a delightful December day tour that promises to immerse you in the holiday spirit. Start the day at the Pepper Street Arts Centre in Magill, where you'll discover the 'Little Treasures for Christmas' exhibition. This special showcase celebrates the talent of over 50 artists, offering a splendid array of quality, handmade items perfect for last-minute gifts. From ceramics and glassware to jewellery and home decor, there's something to catch every eye.

Continue the festive cheer with a traditional Christmas lunch at the scenic Auchendarroch House in the hills, an ideal setting to enjoy the season's best. Post-lunch, we'll visit a local farm where you can pick up top-quality, freshly harvested cherries—just in time for your holiday celebrations.

In the spirit of giving, we are continuing our tradition of supporting those less fortunate in our community. This year, we are collecting donations for Foodbank, which provides vital food relief. We invite you to bring long-life food items to contribute. For more details on how you can help, please give us a call. Make a difference while enjoying a day filled with art, culture, and community.
